BACK TO SWEENY CONNECTION

...2 Grover Cleveland Redding b: 04 Oct 1885 in Sardis, Henderson County, Tennessee, d: 12 Mar 1927 in Port Arthur, Jefferson County, Texas, Burial: 15 May 1927 in Sweeny Cemetery, Sweeny, Brazoria County, Texas.

Lots of families had left Tennessee for a better way of making a living. Grover Cleveland came to Sweeny, Texas and then Bertha brought the children a short time later on the train. They arrived in Sweeny on March 1917.

Grover Cleveland and his family lived and he worked in and around Sweeny, West Columbia and Brazoria cutting logs used to make railroad ties. (See pictures) In 1925, he had an opportunity to go to work for "Texas Company" in Port Arthur as an electrician. March 1927 he was killed while on his job. His head hit a live wire on a light pole. Opal kept his climbing straps and her son J.C. has them now.

After Grover Cleveland's death a neighbor, Mr. Green advised Bertha to take her family back to Sweeny where her oldest daughter, Devorah lived. He said "A large town is no place to raise a family alone. So Bertha brought her family back to Sweeny."

Bertha received a certain amount of insurance money from Texas Company. No one remembers the amount. The company would not give it to her in a lump sum. She received a check for several years. Opal said it was a blessing given that way because the depression came and they did have some money coming in to buy staple goods. Someone would drive Bertha to West Columbia to the "QP" store and she could purchase large sacks of flour, sugar, corn meal, coffee etc. After coming home she would call the neighbors to come and she shared with them.

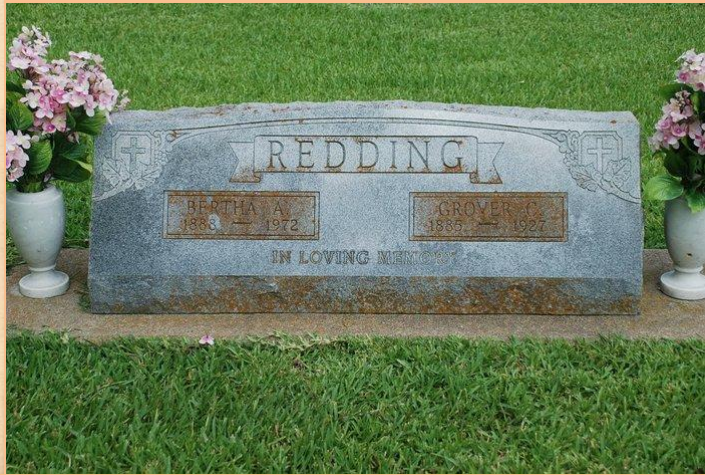

The 1920 census in Brazoria County Precinct #5, indicates that Cleve Reddin had his wife and the following children listed; Devorah 13, Howard 9, Vernice 7, Opal 3, and Bonnard 7 months old. Bonnard was born in Texas.

Grover Cleveland was born Grover Cleveland Reddin. When he brought his family to Texas and went to work in Port Arthur, the men who filled out his employment papers told him his name needed a "G" on it and he didn't argue with them. All his descendants became Reddings.

Notes for Bonnard Albert Redding:

Bonnard was found dead in his car in Sargent Beach, Texas . There were indications that he may have died from lack of oxygen because of a fire, possibly caused by a cigarette, in the upholstery of his car.

At the time of his death he was an employee of Benedict's Grocery Store. He worked as carpenter before that. He was a veteran of World War II.
